David Moxon

David Moxon KNZOM is a New Zealand Anglican bishop. He was until June 2017, the Archbishop of Canterbury's Representative to the Holy See and Director of the Anglican Centre in Rome. He was previously the Bishop of Waikato in the Diocese of Waikato and Taranaki, the Archbishop of the New Zealand dioceses and one of the three Primates of the Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia. In the 2014 New Year Honours, he was appointed a Knight Companion of the New Zealand Order of Merit for services to the Anglican Church.

Previously, Archbishop David served as a VSA school leaver in Fiji, a University tutor in education at Massey, a curate at Havelock North and Vicar of Gate Pa before becoming Director of the Theological Education by Extension Unit of the Anglican Church in this province.

During Archbishop David's time in Rome the Anglican Centre has focused its mission aspect on ecumenical education and networking in the area of modern slavery and human trafficking, as well as ecumenical networking for refugee ministry.

Wes and Janet Chambers

Wesley & Janet Chambers are the senior leaders of Living Waters Christian Centre, having led the church for more than 26 years.

Wes and Janet serve on the national executive team for the New Life Churches, and have a heart to see a multi-generational church empowered in new creation identity, equipped for Kingdom Ministry and operating with a strong family of God paradigm.

Janet functions in the office of a prophet and her heart is to see others hearing and speaking God's heartbeat for themselves and the world we live in.

Together they are strong, passionate, apostolic leaders committed to the body of Christ, seeing people empowered in the Holy Spirit and God's kingdom expanded on earth.
