CANON I
OF MAINTENANCE OF STANDARDS
OF MINISTRY
FOR BISHOPS, MINISTERS AND OFFICE BEARERS

PART A- OF OBLIGATIONS OF OFFICE :

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

1. Men and women accepting the distinctive calling of ordained Ministry, and Office Bearers in this Church must recognise they are not simply exercising a function or role. They also exercise a representative Ministry and are expected to lead an exemplary way of life. Representative Ministry
2. Ministry in an Office in this Church requires observance of appropriate standards of behaviour in the exercising of the role of Minister, in relationships and in personal life. Observance of Standards
3. DUTIES OF CLERICAL OFFICE:
 All who receive the authority of Orders in this Church have a duty of care and guidance to the people they serve. They owe a duty of obedience to their Bishop and those to whom authority is given by the Bishop or by the Constitution / te Pouhere, of collaboration with their colleagues in this Church and the Churches with which this Church is in a covenant relationship, and of consultation and co-operation with the laity. In delegating responsibilities they have a duty of care and continuing supervision. In all they do they have a duty of ensuring the regulations and Canons of this Church are complied with. They exercise their authority as men and women who are themselves under authority. Duty of Ordained Office
4. LITURGY:
 It is the responsibility of Ordained Ministers to lead God's people in praise and thanksgiving to God, to ensure reverent, regular and carefully prepared divine service using the forms authorised by this Church. Liturgy
5. PREACHING, TEACHING AND EVANGELISM:
 It is the duty of Ordained Ministers to preach the Gospel and to instruct people in the faith as this Church understands it. They are to lead people to a deeper exploration and fuller understanding of the Gospel and its challenges to contemporary life within the tradition of faith, bringing new insight and knowledge to interpretation and application, that the Gospel may be proclaimed as good news to their own times. Preaching Teaching and Evangelism

6. SEEKING TO TRANSFORM UNJUST STRUCTURES AND CARING FOR CREATION.
- It is the responsibility of Ministers to proclaim the Mission of the Church which includes seeking to transform unjust structures of society, caring for God's creation, and establishing the values of the Kingdom.
- Unjust Structures and Caring for Creation*
7. PASTORAL CARE:
- It is the tradition of this Church and the duty of Ministers to offer pastoral Ministry and care to all who desire it whether members of a congregation of this Church or not.
- Pastoral Care*
8. PASTORAL OVERSIGHT:
- In exercising their pastoral care Ordained Ministers enter into relationships which may involve exceptional and extended dependency and vulnerability. Ordained Ministers have a special duty of confidentiality of information received by virtue of their role as Ordained Ministers; and improper disclosure of that information is a breach of duty. The protection of children from harm is a primary obligation. Emotional detachment appropriate to calling and to the exercise of pastoral relationships must be maintained. All persons of whatever age, sex, race, creed or ability must be treated with the care and respect that lie at the heart of the Christian vision of all human community and with the wisdom and love that are at the heart of all Christian Ministry.
- Pastoral Oversight*
9. PASTORAL RELATIONSHIPS:
- Ministers of God's grace can themselves become vulnerable. Ministers must guard against the possibility of misunderstanding and over-dependence. Ministers must preserve appropriate inter-personal disciplines and boundaries. Aware of the power of the Minister's position Ministers must avoid abuse of that power, and any manipulation of a person in the guise of giving counsel. It is a serious abuse of power to use a calling or a pastoral position to further a personal relationship of an emotional or sexual nature, and it is a breach of duty.
- Pastoral Relationships*
10. STANDARDS OF PERSONAL BEHAVIOUR:
- Ministry by any Minister is as much a function of what a Minister is as of what a Minister says or does.
- Standards of Personal Behaviour*
- 10.1 HOLINESS:
- Ministers and especially the ordained are called to be witnesses to holiness in their daily lives. As well as acknowledging there are offences which are offences against civil law there are also other kinds of behaviour which though not criminal fall short of the standards expected of a Minister especially an Ordained Minister.
- Holiness*

10.2	HONESTY AND INTEGRITY: Ministers are able to influence others in the exercise of their office and must avoid any improper influence in fact or intention upon those to whom they minister in order to obtain some material benefit. Malicious gossip must be shunned as much as defamation. Ministers must beware of gifts intended as bribes or other influence, or relationships and confidences intended to implicate or manipulate.	Honesty and Integrity
10.3	SELF-CONTROL: Ministers should be temperate, self-controlled in their behaviour, and not abusive towards others.	Self Control
10.4	CHASTITY: Chastity is the right ordering of sexual relationships.	Chastity
10.4.1	Ministers are to be chaste. Promiscuity is incompatible with chastity.
10.4.2	The sexual abuse of children is an utter disregard of humanity and a complete repudiation of the teaching of Christ.
10.5	SUBSTANCE ABUSE: Ministers shall not misuse drugs, alcohol or other substances.	Substance Abuse
10.6	FAMILY: Ministers must give time and care to their families appropriate to family commitments and duties. Ministers need to allot proper time to recreation and the development of their own special gifts and talents.	Family
11.	STANDARDS REQUIRED OF MINISTERS: Ministers shall
11.1	Collaborate appropriately with other Ministers;	Collaboration
11.2	Obey lawful instructions from the Licensing Bishop;	Obedience
11.3	Work collaboratively with others who are licensed to share in the performance of public duties, and in particular of worship;	Share public worship
11.4	Use duly authorised forms of public worship;	Authorised worship
11.5	Preach the Gospel. Lay Ministers are only required to do so when so licensed by the Bishop;	Preaching
11.6	Teach only doctrine and interpretation of the Faith that are in conformity with the formularies of this Church, and not teach private or esoteric doctrine or interpretation in contradiction of those formularies;	Doctrine
11.7	Ensure that those in need are cared for with Christ-like compassion and humility;	Care of the Needy
11.8	Build up Christ's congregation, strengthen the baptised and lead them as witnesses to Christ in the world;	Building up the congregation

11.9	Proclaim the Mission of the Church (as stated in the third Preamble of the Constitution / te Pouhere) and not habitually to neglect such proclamation;	Proclaim the Mission of the Church
11.10	Keep administrative records and ensure administrative duties are carried out properly and appropriately;	Keeping Records
12.	Ordained Ministers shall
12.1	Oversee worship of the congregation by ordained and / or licensed lay Ministers;	Overseeing worship
12.2	Be pastors who share people's joys and sorrows, encourage the faithful, recall those who fall away, heal and help the sick;	Work of pastor
12.3	Proclaim God's word and take their part in Christ's prophetic work, declare forgiveness through Jesus Christ, baptise, preside at the Eucharist and administer Christ's holy sacraments	Priestly ministry
12.4	Serve in the name of Christ and so remind the whole Church that serving others is essential to all ministry, and ensure that those in need are cared for with Christlike compassion and humility.	Diaconal Ministry
12.5.	Bury the dead or conduct the rites for cremation and the committal of ashes;	Bury the dead
12.6	Exercise the pastoral role of spiritual counsel and advice, but avoid moving improperly from that role of pastor into the role of professional counsellor or Tohunga;	Spiritual counsel
12.7	Keep information confidential whether imparted in confession or informally in conversation and not improperly disclose it;	Confidentiality
12.8	Perform the Duties of Office to which the person is licensed in an effective manner. Such performance fails where there is inability or unwillingness to perform those duties.	Inability or unwillingness to perform duties
12.9	Keep records required by law and by the Church, as important tools of Ministry.	Records
13.	MINISTRY RELATIONSHIPS:
	Ministers by virtue of their calling and office enter into various relationships with others. Ministry relationships are grounded in a community of common concern, depend for their successful outcome on a secure basis of integrity and trust and assume the development and practice of appropriate disciplines and skills as well as proper standards of behaviour and practice.	Ministry Relationships
13.1	Those whom God calls to ministerial leadership through the Church have responsibilities	Responsibilities
13.1.1	To exercise accountable oversight to those with whom a Minister has pastoral responsibility and shares the Ministry of the Church;	Accountable oversight
13.1.2	To observe all the provisions and implications for the welfare of children and young persons under civil law;	Children and young persons
